FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1913

President Wilson has a clear idea of what he wants to do and goes ahead and does it.

It is time to be casting about for candidates for township and municipal offices to be nominated this spring.

The Ohio legislature is putting in full time these days in the hope of bringing the present session to a close by the end of next week.

The New Jersey legislature has just passed a sensible law, which requires that hat pins that protrude and endanger the eyes of other people must have the business end protected with a guard.

The Tribune is quite favorably impressed with President Wilson's course in appearing personally before congress to read his message. It was a dignified proceeding and tends to bring the executive nearer the people. And this is as it should be.—Warren Tribune.

Friends of Mrs. Helen Boyle, serving a prison sentence for the part she took in the kidnapping of Billy Whitt at Sharon, Pa., a few years ago, are making strenuous efforts to secure her release and it is believed she will be granted a pardon next month.

Andrew Carnegie has just given another million dollars to the Carnegie technical schools in Pittsburgh, making a total of $3,000,000. He has given to the endowment fund. If Mr. Carnegie could be induced to distribute a like sum among the small and struggling educational institutions of the country what a world of good would be accomplished.

Thirty-six states have declared in favor of the election of United States senators by popular vote. This makes the required three-fourths of all the states in the union and all that now remains to be done is to make the amendment effective for the election of the next congress. It is believed that all the states that have acted favorably to formally notify Secretary Bryan and for him to issue a proclamation announcing the same.

CONGRESSMAN WHITACRE

VERY HIGHLY HONORED

Made Chairman of the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

Congressman John J. Whitacre of this district has been named as chairman of the committee on enrolled bills of the house of representatives by the democratic majority of the house committee on ways and means, which is also the committee on committees.

The enrolled bills committee ranks among the first committees of the lower branch of congress. It brings its members in close touch with all pending legislation. All bills introduced are placed in charge of the committee, which keeps a record of them and assigns them to the proper committees for reference. Whitacre's colleagues on the committee are yet to be selected.

Mr. Whitacre's selection as chairman of this committee gives him more prestige than any other congressman from Ohio. It is said, excepting Representative Ansberry, who is a member of the ways and means committee. This prominence accorded him is taken by his friends as a recognition of his staunch support of President Wilson in the strenuous campaign that ended with Wilson's nomination by the democratic national convention in Baltimore.

TARIFF BILL FEATURES

A graduated income tax on salaries of more than $4,000.

Free raw wool.

Sugar rates cut 25 per cent; sugar to be free in three years.

"Market basket" items on the free list; meat, bread, flour, potatoes, milk, salt and fish.

Reduced rates on butter, eggs and other necessities.

The Ohio department of agriculture has been advised of the following free trip offer to Washington in the acre of corn contest on the Buckeye Corn Special from Mahoning county: H. W. Davis, Youngstown, one trip, county wide.

Between Girls.

"Why the cogitation?" "I dislike to take my engagement ring to a jeweler, and yet I should like to know what it cost. But it would embarrass me to take it to a jeweler."

"You needn't. There are at least two girls in our set who have had it valued."—Pittsburg Post.

YOUNGSTOWN

Judge D. F. Griffith, who recently retired as Probate Judge, has opened a law office in the Homer S. Williams Co. building and will soon have back the extensive practice he enjoyed before assuming the duties of office.

The Vindicator will install the coming summer one of the largest and most complete newspaper printing presses in the country. With the new machine it will be possible to print 64-page papers all at one time when occasion requires.

Craved by Frank, John McBride, a boarder in the home of Mrs. Luke Rigney, shot and probably fatally wounded the woman last Friday night. It is said McBride was insanely jealous of Mrs. Rigney and wanted to marry her. When officers reached the scene of the shooting McBride held them at bay, turning his gun up on them at every opportunity. He fired many shots. Finally Detective John Kane, who is a crack revolver shot, got a glimpse of McBride through a window and shot him in the breast. The wound is not a dangerous one.

The Vindicator says it will be a year before the flood damage done to tracks between this city and Cleveland can be repaired.

Bricklayers in this city receiving $5.20 a day are on a strike, demanding weekly pay days and Saturday half holiday.

A new pump house for the city waterworks will be erected on the south side of the river.

The charter commission hopes to have its work completed within two weeks so that it can be submitted to the voters for approval by the first of June.

Many damage cases are being commenced in common pleas court. Under the old law $10,000 damages was the limit in case of death, but since the adoption of the new constitution $25,000 appears to be the amount usually demanded.

Iron and steel manufacturers declare that their business will receive a hard blow if the new tariff becomes a law. Wages cannot be kept up to present standard if some protection is not afforded.

Richard Hughes of Girard, aged 78, died Wednesday from the effects of injuries sustained in the accident at Westlake's Crossing March 13.

An open meeting of Tod Post, G. A. R., will be held Friday night.

Thomas Cahill has been appointed passenger ticket agent for the B. &amp; O. between Akron and New Castle.

There were only two bids for the $150,000 good roads bonds offered by the commissioners of district No. 1. And neither of them can be accepted as one did not have the necessary certified check with it and the other came in a half hour after the advertised time for the bids to close.

It is possible that the Youngstown soldier boys in Dayton doing relief work may be kept in that city several weeks.

Postmaster Shaffer reports a big increase in the business of the post office the past month. Parcel post business is fairly booming.

Operations at the iron and steel plants in the valley are about normal but it will yet be some time before all annoyances caused by the flood are overcome.

The merchants of the city are urging a merging of the two telephone companies in this city. It is claimed that one company can easily handle the business and large expense would be saved subscribers.

It is said the Y. M. C. A. will be among the bidders for the old court house which is to be sold at public auction. A new building would be erected by the Y. M. C. A.

YOUNGSTOWN PLAYERS

AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE

YOUNGSTOWN

On next Monday, April 14th, the Youngstown Players will open their stock season at the Grand Opera House, Youngstown, with an elaborate scenic revival of Paul Armstrong's famous "crook" play, "Allas Jimmy Valentine," which hardly needs any introduction to local theatre-goers. Valentine has long been prominent as a stage fiction. The fame of the bold and clever bank loot who could open safe doors with his sensitive fingers, but who was able to reform and lead a clean, virtuous life when the right sort of woman came along, has gone before him. Nevertheless, it may be interesting to recall the fact that O. Henry, whose death a few months ago robbed America of one of its cleverest short story writers, was the author of "A Retrieved Reformation" and on this, with modifications, was the play "Allas Jimmy Valentine" composed by Paul Armstrong with masterly skill. It is, by common agreement, a big, straight-forward, red-blooded play. The entire strength of the company that is to bid for popular approval at the Grand, will be called into play next week, Godfrey Matthews, the handsome leading man of the Youngstown Players will be seen as Jimmy Valentine, while Grace Bryan will handle the role created by Elsie Leslie. The balance of the company, which includes such well known artists as Agnes Harrington, Mabel Reed, Georgia Hayes, Thomas Irwin, Franklin George, Phil Bishop, Lee Harvey, W. Francis Clark, Charles Ashley, Lewis Sumers and Edwin Clark, have all been cast for the parts to which they are particularly well suited. Seats are now on sale at the Grand box-office. There will be matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

A Thousand Men

spend all their income as they go along, expecting after a while to make more money and save it, but scarcely one such person in a thousand ever does save to amount to anything. The habit of spending everything becomes too strong to be broken and expenses are apt to increase faster than the means to meet them.

In order to prosper financially, the savings account must come first, not last, in the schedule of outlay.
